NINTENDO GAMECUBE / GAME BOY ADVANCE CABLE

Once again, Nintendo has evolved the gaming experience beyond expectations by combining the interactive power of the world's hottest hand-held and home consoles!! Using the Nintendo GameCube Game Boy Advance cable to connect systems with selected games, you can unlock hidden levels, mini-games, characters, tools, weapons and other items and transfer them between systems. Game Boy Advance can also be utilized as a supplemental screen or input device to display map and data features for an adventure game or a replay feature similar to a stadium "Jumbotron" in sports titles.

AVAILABILITY, PRICE & COMPATIBILITY

The Nintendo GameCube Game Boy Advance Cable is available through Nintendo's Online Store and most retailers. MSRP is $9.95. Game Boy Advance SP is also compatible with this accessory.

The titles listed on the following page are only the first to take advantage of the unique and amazing gameplay potential. Numerous game producers have recognized the potential of this interactive advancement and are adapting their titles to take advantage of this original feature. Future titles include:

- Mario Golf: Toadstool Tour
- Sonic Adventure DX Director's Cut
- Madden NFL 2004
- Crash Nitro Kart
- Phantasy Star Online Card Battle
- Harvest Moon: A Wonderful Life
- Medabots: Infinity
